

TSgt Christopher Frost ("Frosty"), an Air Force Explosive Ordnance Disposal technician currently recovering at Walter Reed Army Medical Center from an IED attack in Iraq, receives a new road bike from Arrow Bikes co-owner Chris Militello as Pacer team members Darren Bucks and Lane Lawrence look on...

Motivated to get back into cycling by rehab & desire, Frosty received the bike from the Blue Suit Pacers through generous contributions of team sponsors & team members. Along with his fellow team mates, Frosty & the Pacers will participate in several events such as the American Diabetes Association's Tour De Cure, the US Air Force Cycling Classic, and the Armed Forces Cycling Association's Wounded Warrior Unity Tour...

Good on ya', Frosty----We're All Proud of YOU!!!!
